- (1) The following is a summary of the pieces of evidence for the underlined facts (A) that are referred to in the same paragraph. Fill in each blank with a word or a phrase in Japanese.

今日では、( a )を解雇したり、( b )に( c )を強要したりすることは、もはや認められていない。アメリカの大学では、男性と女性に差別的な異なる進路を設定するのは( d )であり、明らかに( e )とわかる発言は以前より少なくなった。また、NSFのアドバンスプログラムのおかげで、全国で( f )が大学教授になった。パデュー大学とワシントン大学では( g )が生まれ、( h )が女性である。

- (2) The following questions (a) through (d) are about what is written in the article. Choose the best answer and write the number you have selected in your answer sheet.

- (a) What did Dr. Koffler tell Rita Colwell when she told her plan to postpone medical school?

- ① There is no chance for women to obtain a graduate degree.
- ② Rita had better get married if she pursues a career in science.
- ③ Rita can be engaged only in a field concerned with the birth of children.
- ④ Purdue University cannot offer a fellowship to Rita because the university wasted a considerable number of fellowships on women.
- ⑤ Women are forbidden to pursue a higher degree after getting married.

- (b) What is the purpose of Dr. Colwell's new publication?

- ① to administer the National Science Foundation more successfully
- ② to make a breakthrough in the study of cholera
- ③ to tell the readers that it is no use to demonstrate for equality between men and women
- ④ to give women in the field of science the enthusiasm to make further progress
- ⑤ to show she was lucky enough to have a lot of supporters in a male-dominated field

(c) Which is closest to Dr. Colwell's view of the present state of sexism in science?

- ① Men and women are now almost equally treated in the field of science.
- ② Sexism has been improved, but there will be further improvements.
- ③ Most obstacles for women have faded away.
- ④ There have never been changes in sexism in the field of science.
- ⑤ It is impossible to equally evaluate achievements of male and female scientists.

(d) Which of the following tips is NOT included in the underlined (B)?

- ① to gain self-confidence in the ability to achieve a goal
- ② to be diplomatic in accomplishing one's aim(s)
- ③ to endure until one's proposal is repeated by a male colleague
- ④ to keep quiet so that others may express how splendid one's idea is
- ⑤ to have the arrogance to request praise for one's own proposal

(3) Write a two-paragraph English essay of about 200 words in response to both of the following questions. The first paragraph is for (a) and the second paragraph is for (b). If you need to quote what is written in the article, use single quotation marks ( ' ' ) to indicate the parts you have cited.

(a) What do you think about Dr. Colwell's life-long battles with sexism?

(b) What is your view of inequality between males and females in Japan or in the world?

Do you see any problem?
